

Authentication Headers

To communicate with the DK System using the webservice you need credentials or a token to get access to the data

When using the System to System licensing you have two options BasicSecurity or Security if the User System Licensing model is used then dkAuth 1.0 \(TokenSecurity\) should be used but it can be used for System to System and is also recommended for security reasons

- Basic Security

Related articles

- Basic Security
- Authentication Headers
- TokenSecurity
- Security
- BasicSecurity